

Chapter 2

HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION¹

2-2-1: PURPOSE:

It is the intent of the city of Green River to identify, preserve, protect, and enhance historic areas and sites lying within the city limits of the city of Green River, and any artifacts accumulated, collected, donated, or loaned to the John Wesley Powell river history museum or the city of Green River. (Ord. 2006-01, 2-14-2006)

2-2-2: DEFINITIONS:

As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the meanings herein described:

CITY: The city of Green River, Utah, Inc.

COMMISSION: The historic preservation commission as appointed by the city council of Green River, Utah. (Ord. 2006-01, 2-14-2006)

2-2-3: COMMISSION CREATED:

- A. Appointment, Terms: The commission shall consist of a minimum of five (5) members with a demonstrated interest, competence, or knowledge in historic preservation, appointed by the city council for terms of not less than two (2) years.
- B. Required Memberships: To the extent available in the community, at least one commission member shall be professional, as defined by national park service regulations, from the disciplines of history, archaeology, planning, architecture or architectural history, and one member shall be from the city council.
- C. Meetings: The commission shall meet at least twice each year and conduct business in accordance with the open public meeting laws of Utah. This includes public notification of meeting place, time and agenda items. Written minutes of each commission meeting shall be prepared and made available for public inspection. (Ord.2006-01, 2-14-2006)

2-2-4: COMMISSION DUTIES:

- A. Survey And Inventory: The commission shall conduct, or cause to be conducted, a survey of the historic, architectural, and archaeological resources within the community. The survey shall be compatible with the Utah Inventory of Historic and Archaeological Sites. Survey and inventory documents shall be maintained and shall be open to the public. The survey shall be updated at least every ten (10) years.

- B. Review Of Nominations: The commission shall review any comments to the state historic preservation officer on all proposed national registry nominations for properties within the boundaries of the city. When the commission considers a national register nomination, which is normally evaluated by professionals in a specific discipline, is not represented on the commission, the commission shall seek expertise in that area before rendering its decision.

- C. Advice And Information: The commission shall act in an advisory role to other officials and departments of government regarding the identification and protection of local historic and archaeological resources. The commission shall work toward the continuing education of citizens regarding historic preservations and community history. (Ord. 2006-01, 2-14-2006)
