Jury Trial is around the corner!

Two counts have been dismissed. One left!

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to you with a heavy heart and a great sense of urgency as I am facing an important trial tomorrow. I'm reaching out to seek your support and encouragement during this challenging time.

The impending trial has left me feeling anxious and apprehensive, but knowing that I have the support of caring friends like you brings me a ray of hope and strength. Your friendship and positive energy have always been a source of comfort to me, and I can't express how much it means to have you by my side, even if it's just in spirit.

Tomorrow's trial will determine the course of my future, and I'm trying my best to stay strong and focused. I believe in my innocence, but the uncertainty of the outcome weighs heavily on me. Your words of encouragement, prayers, or even just a reassuring message would make a world of difference right now.

If you find it in your heart to send positive thoughts my way or say a prayer for me, I would be forever grateful. Your support means more to me than words can convey, and knowing that you are rooting for me will give me the courage to face whatever comes my way.

Please keep me in your thoughts and wish me strength and clarity for tomorrow's trial.

I truly appreciate your friendship and all the love you have shown me throughout the years.

To be continued next week. Again pray for my three sons and I NOW HELD
ASPOLITICAL PRISONERS FOR OVER 1080 days without a victim (injured party,) without a speedy 7th Amendment trial by jury, without bail and unlawfully imprisoned by a treasonous ACT of the DOJ.

May God help us all!
