Rallying Together: Help Needed for Legal Battle and Family Support

Dear Friends,

I hope this letter finds you well. I want to express my sincere gratitude for the unwavering support you've provided during these challenging times. Along with my children, we have spent the last three years behind bars, declared guilty of the charges brought against us.

As the date for our sentencing, October 6th, approaches, our hearts are heavy with the uncertainty of what lies ahead. We've taken the step of appealing the verdict, but the financial burden of legal fees has become overwhelming. This is where we turn to you, our cherished friends, for assistance.

The financial strain has not only affected us but also our families who are grappling with economic hardship. It's heart-wrenching to know that our young children rely on us, and yet, from within these prison walls, we are unable to provide the support they need.

To make matters worse, the FDA has frozen all our savings, leaving us in a desperate predicament. We urgently require funds to submit a petition before the judge, seeking the release of our assets so that we can secure our family's future.

Despite the challenges we face, we hold onto the belief that one day we will be free. However, fear courses through us as we've been under relentless financial attack from all sides. It feels like the world is closing in on us, making your support even more crucial.

Your past support has been a lifeline for us, a reminder that even in the darkest of times, friendship and solidarity can prevail. Today, we humbly ask for your assistance once more. Whether large or small, every contribution will be a beacon of hope in our fight for justice and our family's well-being.

We want you to understand that your generosity doesn't just affect us; it profoundly impacts our children who are eagerly awaiting the day we can return to them. Your support isn't just financial; it's a ray of hope in these challenging times.

In closing, we want to express our deepest gratitude for the friendship and support you've shown us. We value your presence in our lives and hope that brighter days are on the horizon. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for standing by us during this journey.

Sincerely,
Mark Grenon
