Short update on Mark's release status

Mark Grenon's request for release has been denied by the federal prison, leading to his assignment to a medium security housing facility. We intend to challenge this decision through an appeal, but securing the necessary funds is imperative for this endeavor. Currently, the official release date is set to november 13, 2024.

"It's difficult to articulate the profound impact your support has had on my family and me during these challenging times. Your prayers, words of encouragement, and unwavering backing have served as a source of immense comfort, affirming that our actions align with God's will. The spiritual onslaught we're facing targets higher powers and dark forces, a clear indication that our endeavors are perceived unfavorably by the adversary.

The recent focus on my health over the past two months has presented significant challenges. Nevertheless, I've keenly felt the power of collective prayers and the comforting presence of the Lord guiding me through this ordeal. Many inquire about the lessons learned from this test of faith. Reflecting on this, I realize it's not about discovering something new, but rather, reinforcing the eternal truths embedded in God's Word. Proverbs 3:5&6 has been my anchor throughout my 45 years of faith:

'Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight.'

This verse has been my steadfast companion through trials, a testament to its enduring power since my earliest days as a believer, when I had it inscribed in gold on my Bible."

Please consider supporting us financially so we can withstand these attacks and continue our mission. Thank you for standing with us in this critical time.
